

music teacher

Why Mr Alex Loves Teaching:

“I relish the opportunity to be able to contribute and give back to a music tradition that has had such a profound impact on my own life.”

Mr. Alex teaches both piano and voice at APA. He received his Bachelor of Arts in piano, with a minor in film and theatre studies at the University of Wisconsin-Eau Claire. Mr. Alex has performed a wide variety of musical styles in multiple settings. As a college student, he participated in various ensembles, including The Singing Statesmen and Jazz Ensembles, where he acted as section leader.

For several years, Mr. Alex served as an accompanist for UW Eau Claire’s choral department as well as for many individual performers. He pursued classical piano training throughout his time at Eau Claire and hosted a senior recital. Mr. Alex has founded several successful funk bands and jazz combos and has worked in various pit orchestras for the Chippewa Valley Theatre Guild, Eau Claire Children’s Theatre, UWEC, and Cabaret Productions, to name a few. After graduation, Alex spent two years working as a showband pianist and piano bar entertainer for various cruise lines before moving back to Wisconsin.

In Milwaukee, he has worked freelance for various institutions including the Milwaukee Children’s Chorus, Milwaukee Metro Voices, Horlick and Oak Creek High Schools, and Angelo’s Piano Lounge. In addition to teaching at APA, Mr. Alex is the music and choir director for the UUUC Church in Waukesha.