

MISS LISA

music teacher

*Miss Lisa
loves teaching!*

Miss Lisa teaches both piano and voice to students of all ages! At a young age she decided that her calling in life was to share her love of music with young people.

In college, Miss Lisa continued studying piano with Dr. Barbara Vanderwall and went on to pursue a Bachelor of Arts in vocal music from North Central College, and a Master of Music from Northern Illinois University, with a special emphasis in education and world music. Her career includes performing as a classical soloist, performing leading roles in musicals, teaching within public schools for 15 years, and conducting community youth ensembles, including the Milwaukee Children's Choir training ensembles and the Irish fest choirs.

A classically trained lyric soprano, Miss Lisa enjoys performing diverse styles of music, ranging from opera, jazz, classic rock, alternative, Celtic, Middle Eastern, Indian ragas, and Balinese Kecak. While her tastes are eclectic, she ultimately loves exploring the world's diverse traditions of storytelling through performance.
